

FIGURES

3.1	Healing ritual against “witchcraft” and “mental disturbance,” Menka area, by Alexander Boroffka, 1970	96
3.2	University of Ibadan Hospital, Aro Field Research Unit for the WHO study on schizophrenia, by Alexander Boroffka, 1970	113
3.3	Benedict Nta Tanka in Menka country, by Alexander Boroffka, 1984	113
3.4	Benedict Nta Tanka in front of the Bismarck memorial in Buea, by Alexander Boroffka, 1984	114
3.5	Benedict Nta Tanka and his wife; Alexander Boroffka; and two Tanka family members, photographer unknown, 1984	116
3.6	Cover of Benedict Nta Tanka’s book	119
4.1	Entrance to the asylum for the insane at Anjanamasina, Madagascar, 2019	139
4.2	Abandoned ward of the Malagasy asylum at Anjanamasina, 2019	139
4.3	Letter to a doctor at the Malagasy asylum at Anjanamasina, 1928	140
6.1	Typical response by sixteen-year-old Scottish-Yoruba student, Prince survey	183

6.2	Response by fourteen-year-old with giddiness, Prince survey	188
6.3	“Bad sight” as a reported symptom, Prince survey	193
6.4	An Ibibio youth reporting on “wandering of mind when reading,” Prince survey	195
6.5	A rare survey mention of a symptom: “nervousness,” Prince survey	197
7.1	“Pepo. Mtaita,” Mgangi Dawida, 1957	222
7.2	“Possession—Taita,” Margett’s photo album, 1958	224
7.3	“Possession—Taita,” Margett’s photo album, 1958	225
C.1	Ogundeji (patient), painting of owl with mice, 1950	312
C.2	Titus (Ogundeji’s asylum friend), painting, 1950	314
C.3	Abu (patient), self-portrait as a general, 1950	315