

1. Elizabeth Lawrence with her niece Elizabeth Way.

2. Gate of the Charlotte garden.

3. Plan of the Charlotte garden.

4. Pink petals of the Oriental magnolias on the paths of the garden in early spring.

5. Rear wall of the Charlotte garden with a plaque of the Madonna and Child.

6. Elizabeth Lawrence's study with window looking out into the garden.

INVOICE

KINGSVILLE NURSERIES
KINGSVILLE, MARYLAND

Our Order No.

9388

Date Shipped October 25, 1949.

ORDERED BY

Miss Elizabeth Lawrence
348 Ridgewood Ave
Charlotte, N.C.

ARTICLE	PRICE	AMOUNT
Ceanothus Arnoldi 4ft B&B		$ 5.00
" Gl.de.Vers. 2ft " ditto		2.00
Cot. salicifolia		1.50
" Franchetti		1.50
Cledrastris lutea		1.50
Chaenomeles Apple Blossom-only plant in hand 3-3 1/2 ft		2.50
Euonymus nana 18" B&B		2.50
Ham. Mollis		2.00
Mag. Conspicua 2yr graft		2.00
Osmunda Burlewodi 18"	2.00	4.00
Pieris Taiwanensis		1.00
Phyllera decora		2.00
Siphonanthus delavayi		2.00
Stewartia pseudo-cam.		1.50
Vib. cinnamomifolium		2.50
Wisteria sinensis alba		4.00
Syringa swegen. suberba		1.50
Boxing at cost		2.50
		$ 42.50

7. An invoice for plants dated 1949. Some of the plants on this invoice remain in the Charlotte garden.

8. Rosa 'Old Blush' at the front of the Lawrence house in Charlotte in April.

9. View of the garden from the study window.

10. Elizabeth Lawrence with Elizabeth Clarkson and Carl Starker at the front door of her Charlotte house in 1957.